ICE had NOTHING to do with this woman's death. She passed away THREE days after ICE encountered her.

Following her arrest by local authorities for Terroristic Threats and Harassment, Daphy Michel, an illegal alien from Haiti, was encountered by ICE and placed in removal proceedings. ICE issued her an ICE ankle monitor and she was released from ICE custody on February 27. She was released with all of her belongings, including a fully charged phone, in sunny weather in the middle of Pittsburgh, where public transport is readily available.

On March 3, ICE received a notification that her ankle monitor had been tampered with. ICE officers traveled to her last known location on the GPS system: the county medical office. Upon arrival, local staff refused to cooperate or even talk with ICE federal law enforcement. Our officers instead had to call the U.S. Marshal's service, who were let into the building and were given the severed ankle monitor. However, staff refused to even tell the U.S. Marshals about the individual's condition.

ICE was never given official notification of her passing, and found out about her death via the media thanks to the local county's refusal to even have a conversation with federal law enforcement.

ICE did it again - released a detainee far from her home without notifying her family.

Three days after having an ankle monitor put on by ICE, 31 year old Daphy Michel was found unresponsive at a bus station. She died later that day. ...
